
ADSA AUCTION ITEMS — INVENTORY (June 20, 2006)
56 Auction Items And 11 Raffle Items

ANTIQUES & COLLECTIBLES

Antique Pewter Plate with Milking Cow Design

Donor: Thomas Holzinger

Antique pewter plate with copper decorations and a hand hammered design of a peasant milking a cow. Crafted during the Ottoman Empire (approx. 1880) in or near Isfahan, Iran.

Est. Value: $300.00

Arm & Hammer 1928 Chevy Panel Van

Donor: Ken Cummings, Church & Dwight

Arm & Hammer 1928 Chevy Panel Van 1:24 scale diecast bank by Ertl Collectibles. Van is yellow and red with Arm & Hammer logo on the door.

Est. Value: $35.00

Bronze Statue

Donor: George and Aniko Somkuti

Cows, small bronze statue by American artist Philip Kraczkowski (designer of the GI Joe action figure).

Est. Value: $250.00

Bronze Statue

Donor: George and Aniko Somkuti

Cow, medium sized bronze statue by American artist Philip Kraczkowski (designer of the GI Joe action figure).

Est. Value: $450.00

Cow Bookends with books

Donor: Anonymous

Pair of cast iron cow bookends with 5 soft cover children's books.

Est. Value: $60.00

Collection of Cows

Donor: Anonymous

In a cow can are several cow items, including a trivet, a pot holder, and a belt buckle.

Est. Value: $50.00

Small Crock

Donor: Anonymous

Rockdale Pottery (Cambridge, WI) crock with a cow on the side. The crock is 5" in diameter and 5 1/2" high.

Est. Value: $39.00

Framed 1901 Newspaper Cartoon

Donor: Lynn & Catherine Davis

Framed & matted newspaper page from 1901 from the St. Paul Dispatch women's section titled, "Comic View of the Agricultural Department." Measures 27"x20".

Est. Value: $120.00

Hand carved cow

Donor: Jim Lauderdale

This exquisite walnut carving is by artist Glenn C. McCune and features a man milking a horned cow. This was originally made for the 1996 ADSA auction, and is be represented in ADSA's Centennial Year.

Est. Value: $1,000.00

Handblown Holstein Ornaments - 2.

Donor: Kerry Kaylegian

These lovely glass ornaments with a holstein pattern that were handblown in Corning, NY.

Est. Value: $50 for the pair

Hand Stitched Quilt to Commemorate ADSA's 100th Anniversary 2006

Donor: Elaine Baumgardt

Original design, both Production and Dairy Foods are represented on the quilt with a cow and a milk pitcher. Quilting in plain blocks subtly is the ADSA (globe) logo. 88 x 105 in. Every stitch is done by hand. About 1200 hours. The fabrics are 100% cotton and batting is polyester. All materials have been pre-shrunk. Use on a full size (+) bed or as a beautiful large wall hanging. A lovely memento for the 100th year celebration of ADSA.

Est. Value: $1,000.00

Oil Painting, "Little Steer"

Donor: Mary Margaret Steele

Original oil painting titled "Little Steer" by artist Mary Margaret Steele. Painted about 10/2005.

Est. Value: $125.00

Painting, Cows by a Stream

Donor: George & Aniko Somkuti

Watercolor, framed, ca. 14x18 showing cows by a stream, by Philip E. Chillman, 19/20th century Philadelphia-area artist.

Est. Value: $300.00

Painting, Cows on Pasture.

Donor: George and Aniko Somkuti

Oil painting on canvas by Western artist, Carl Rhodes.

Est. Value: $1,200.00

Parable of the Isms & Excelsior Creamery Stock Certificate

Donor: Anonymous

Parable of the Isms is 11 x 14, matted and ready for framing. The stock certificate is 16 x 18 and framed in barn boards.

Est. Value: $50.00

Print, "Amish Country" by N.A. Noel

Donor: Howard & Ruby Larsen

"Amish Country" print by N.A. Noel. Holsteins and Amish girl in a snowstorm. Framed and double matted. Size 26 1/2 x 30 1/2

Est. Value: $175.00

Print, "Attitude is Everything" by Bonnie Mohr

Donor: ADSA Foundation

Bonnie Mohr print, "Attitude is Everything" #194/2000 signed and numbered with a certificate of authenticity. This edition was limited to 2000 special prints to celebrate the Moo-llennium Year 2000. It was created from an oil painting by Bonnie Mohr and it is hand signed and embossed by the artist. This print is not framed.

Est. Value: $100.00

Print, "Wanna Lick?"

Donor: Anonymous

Print titled, "Wanna Lick?" is by Laurie Helm and measures 18 x 21. It is matted and framed.

Est. Value: $80.00

Print, Cows on Pasture

Donor: George & Aniko Somkuti

Nice print, framed, of an original painting by Thomas B. Craig (1849-1924), New York State artist, ca. 16x20, showing cows on pasture.

Est. Value: $85.00

Print, Foster Mothers of the Human Race

Donor: Howard & Ruby Larsen

Framed print by James Baird for Hoard's Dairyman. 16 x 20

Est. Value: $75.00

Print, Smithfield Cattle Show

Donor: Dave Dickson

Up for auction is a wonderful, very old framed British print of the Smithfield Cattle Show. This is a colored print taken from an original copy of the 1862 London Illustrated News. The print is in absolutely perfect condition. The size (including the frame and mat) is about 10 1/2 in x 13 1/2 in.

Est. Value: $250.00

Blue & White Bowl

Donor: Anonymous

An 8" bowl from Country Memory Pottery. The inside is inscribed with, "A plump wife and a big barn never did a man harm."

Est. Value: $45.00

BOOKS

Animal Sciences, Fourth Edition, Campbell, Kenealy, Campbell, 2003

Donor: John Campbell

Animal Sciences: The Biology, Care and Production of Domestic Animals, Fourth Edition.

Written by John Campbell, OK State University, Doug Kenealy, Iowa State University, and Karen Campbell, University of Illinois. Published in 2003.

Est. Value:

Bioenergetics and Growth by Samuel Brody, 1945

Donor: John Campbell

Bioenergetics and Growth by Samuel Brody, University of Missouri, 1945. Good condition.

Includes bio and sketch of Brody, prepared by John Campbell and placed inside front cover of book.

Est. Value:

Companion Animals, by K. Campbell, J. Corbin and J. Campbell, 2005.

Donor: John Campbell

Companion Animals, by K. Campbell, University of Illinois; J. Corbin, University of Illinois; and J. Campbell, Oklahoma State University. Published in 2005. Useful reference devoted to companion animals.

Est. Value:

Dairy Queen

Donor: George & Aniko Somkuti

Best-seller novel for teen-age girls. About a young girl growing up on a dairy farm. By Catherine Gilbert Murdock

Est. Value: $15.00

Dry Rot in the Ivory Tower, J. Campbell.

Donor: John Campbell

Dry Rot in the Ivory Tower, written by John R. Campbell, 2000.

Est. Value:

Henry & Morrison book: Feeds and Feeding, 1917

Donor: John M. Bonner

This issue of Feeds and Feeding dates back to 1917 and is in great condition.

Est. Value:

In Touch with Students: A Philosophy for Teachers

Donor: John Campbell

This 23-chapter book tells how to get in touch with students including study habits, student activities, creative and innovative teaching, and much more. Published 1972.

Est. Value:

Reclaiming A Lost Heritage: Land-Grant and other Higher Education Initiatives for the 21st Century by John Campbell

Donor: John Campbell

A historical overview of the land-grant university and has special coverage of teaching, research, extension and international programs. 269 pages, published in 1998.

Est. Value:

The Book of Ice Cream from the Rural Text Book Series, 1924

Donor: John Campbell

The Book of Ice Cream, by Walter Fisk, Cornell University, published 1924. Good condition. Includes appendix on standardizing the ice cream mix.

Est. Value:

The Breeding of Animals from the Rural Text Book Series, 1922

Donor: John Campbell

The Breeding of Animals by F.B. Mumford, University of Missouri. Part of the Rural Text Book Series. Published in 1922. Good condition.

Est. Value:

The Science of Providing Milk for Man, by J. Campbell and R. Marshall, 1975.

Donor: John Campbell

The Science of Providing Milk for Man, by J. Campbell and R. Marshall, University of Missouri. Published in 1975.

Est. Value:

The Stinky Cheese Man and Other Fairly Stupid Tales.

Donor: George & Aniko Somkuti

Children's book - silly takes on some childhood favorites. By Jan Scieszka and Lane Smith. Also includes a poster measuring approx. 12 x 14.

Est. Value: $15.00

BOTTLES

Cop Top Milk Bottle

Donor: Howard & Ruby Larsen

For the serious bottle collector - a rare cop top milk bottle labeled Sunshine Dairy.

Est. Value: $85.00

Cream Top Bottle with Spoon
Donor: Howard & Ruby Larsen
Cream top milk bottle with a cream spoon.
Est. Value: $95.00

Milk Storage Bottle and Old Bottle Caps
Donor: Anonymous
A milk glass storage bottle made in Italy for Provender. Stands 10" tall. Also a collection of ten old paper milk bottle caps.
Est. Value: $50.00

12 Bottle Cream Balance
Donor: Gint Behrens, Land O Lakes, Inc.
12 bottle cream balance used to test farmer's cream in creameries. Manufactured by the Torsion Balance Company, style #4505, No. C44404, 500g.
Est. Value: $100.00

12 Bottle Cream Balance
Donor: Gint Behrens, Land O Lakes, Inc.
12 bottle cream balance used to test farmer's cream in creameries. Manufactured by the Torsion Balance Company, style #4500, No. B26674. Last used in 1965.
Est. Value: $100.00

Antique Cone-Shaped Milk Cartons
Donor: George & Aniko Somkuti
Three old cone-shaped milk cartons, two are 1qt size (one for milk, the other for buttermilk) and a smaller one for milk.
Est. Value: $35., $35, $20

DAIRY ANTIQUES & MEMORABILIA

Antique Dairy Literature from Hoards Dairyman Magazine
Donor: Dave Beede
This collection of antique dairy literature includes pages from Hoard's Dairyman, August 10, 1962 describing that Dr. I. Walker Rupel, Texas A& M Univeristy was elected President of ADSA. Plus, the ADSA Award winners for the year are named and profiled. Additionally, from Hoard's Dairyman are offered eight graphic charts focusing on dairying and the profitability of subscribers to Hoard's magazine who had dairy farms in the 10 Dairy Belt states (New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, and Missouri) with incomes of over $2,500 annually (circa 1930s).
Est. Value: $75.00

Antique Royal Doulton Cup and Saucer

Donor: Howard & Ruby Larsen

Antique Royal Doulton cup and saucer from the Mother Goose collection. It is inscribed with "Where are you going my pretty maid? I'm going a-milking Sir, she said." Included are three milkmaid postcards.

Est. Value: $95.00

Butter Churn

Donor: George & Aniko Somkuti

Large, wooden cylindrical butter churn dating back to the late 19th or early 20th century. In great condition.

Est. Value: $250.00

Cow Cruet and Shaker Set

Donor: Ed & Paula Jaster

This set is absolutely adorable.; It is in excellent condition and has original cork stoppers.; It stands; 7" tall, and; is 6" long; from nose to tail.; The cruets measure 3 1/2" tall; the shakers measure 2 1/4" tall.; There are no nicks or chips. This would be; a perfect addition; to any cow lovers collection!

Est. Value: $30.00

DeLaval Milk Separator Tin Match Holder

Donor: Dave Dickson

This tin match holder is unique and in excellent condition. Great addition for a collector!

Est. Value: $400.00

DeLaval Tip Tin

Donor: Dave Dickson

A small tin plate for coins, distributed by DeLaval. In very good shape.

Est. Value: $200.00

Hoard's Creamery Fancy Gilt-Edge Butter Container

Donor: Hoard's Dairyman, Corey Geiger

Selling is an unused Hoard's Creamery Fancy Gilt Edge Butter container box which contained 1 pound net weight butter. This is the first time that this is being offered at a public auction. In 1885 second son, Arthur Hoard, established Hoard's Creamery. Arthur Hoard started packing butter in small wooden tubs but soon shifted to print butter. That gave the product identification, and since every package bore the name Hoard's Gilt Edge Butter. The plant was sold in 1936 and operated until about 1955.

Est. Value: $150.00

Small Wooden Butter Press

Donor: Jimmy & Karen Clark

This tiny butter press has an imprint of three clovers. It measures approximately 2 1/2 inches tall.

Est. Value: $25.00

FUN & TRAVEL

2007 ADSA Annual Meeting Package

Donor: American Dairy Science Association

For the thirteenth year, ADSA is pleased to offer a hassle-free trip to the ADSA Annual Meeting.

In 2007, ADSA will be meeting with ASAS July 8-12 in San Antonio, TX. Package includes meeting registration and hotel accommodations during the meeting. (Travel not included.)

Est. Value: $900.00

Indianapolis 500 Race Weekend

Donor: Elanco Animal Health, attn: Mark Hart, Dairy Marketing Manager

Elanco will again provide a weekend trip in 2007 to Indianapolis for the Indy 500. Dates are May 26-27, 2007. Package includes two race tickets, express ride to and from the race, a two night stay at a hotel in downtown Indianapolis, tickets to the 500 Parade on Saturday, plus other amenities including a box lunch.

Est. Value: $1,000.00

Two Tickets to July 12, 2006 Performance of WICKED at Minneapolis' Orpheum Theater.

Donor: Greater Minneapolis Convention & Visitors Association, Ruth Warden, CMP, Senior Convention Services Manager

Long before Dorothy, that girl from Kansas, arrives in Munchkinland, two girls meet in the land of Oz. One, born with emerald-green skin, is smart, fiery and misunderstood. The other is beautiful, ambitious and very popular. How these two grow to become the Wicked Witch of the West and Glinda the Good Witch makes for the most spellbinding new musical in years. WICKED has won 15 major awards, including the Grammy® and three Tony Awards®. Today, WICKED is “Broadway's biggest blockbuster.” Package includes two tickets for Opening Night, Wednesday, July 12th at the Orpheum Theater in Minneapolis' Theater District, 910 Hennepin Avenue. Tickets are compliments of the Greater Minneapolis Convention and Visitors Association.

Est. Value: $159.50

ADSA MEETING MEMORABILIA

Ashtrays/paperweights from the 1954 ADSA Meeting at Penn State.

Donor: Dr. Earl and Wilna Kesler - per John Fuquay

Set of six stainless steel ash trays made by the Girton Dairy Equipment Company that were from the 1954 ADSA meeting at Penn State. The ash trays are stainless steel. Across the top border A. D. S. A '54 is printed; the bottom border

Penn State University; in the center is an engraved cow head with Girton Dairy Equipment printed over it. Girton was proud of their stainless steel bulk tanks and other equipment. They could be used as coasters. This meeting was a year or two before the Surgeon Generals Report on the dangers of tobacco. Wonderful momento for the Penn State alum!

Est. Value: ??

Bronze Bookends from 1947 ADSA Meeting in Guelph.

Donor: Dr. Earl and Wilna Kesler - per John Fuquay

Up for auction is a pair of bronze bookends from the 1947 ADSA meeting in Guelph. The bookends are bronze and quite nice, perhaps 6" tall. Across the top is OAC, the next line Guelph--- a symbol--- Ont, the next line Canada; ADSA is down the left side and 1947 down the right; Between are what looks like ornate wooden doors with steps leading up to them. These were received by Dr. Kesler as he attended his first ADSA meeting at the Ontario Agricultural College in Guelph. A well preserved memento from the meeting.

Est. Value: ??

NC State Ashtray

Donor: Jimmy & Karen Clark

NC State hosted the ADSA Meeting in 1976, and gave all meeting attendees a walnut ashtray holder. On the holder was the NC State logo and "ADSA 1976". It includes the glass ashtray. How times have changed!

Est. Value: ??

Paper Weight Collection

Donor: Jimmy & Karen Clark

Paper weights were another popular giveaway to meeting goers. This collection includes paperweights from ADSA's 50th meeting, it's 80th meeting, and from Borden to commemorate the Borden Award's Jubilee. The first paperweight was given at ADSA's 50th meeting, held in Storrs, Connecticut. This glass paperweight was designed with the words: ADSA, 1096 - 1956 IL - CT written on the paperweight. University of Illinois hosted both the 1st meeting and the 80th meeting. To commemorate the occasion, orange and blue paperweights were cast. This offering includes an orange and blue paperweight. Lastly, Borden gave paperweights to former Borden Award Winners at a luncheon to celebrate Borden's Award Jubilee at Edmonton, Canada in 1988. Paperweight is white marble with the Borden logo and an inscribed plate commemorating the event.

Est. Value: ??

Portfolio from the 80th ADSA Annual Meeting

Donor: Jimmy & Karen Clark

For several years, ADSA gave away briefcases or portfolios to meeting participants, the thought being it provided a place for keeping meeting papers, the program and abstracts books in one place during the meeting. This case is brown leather-look and commemorates the 80th ADSA Meeting held at the University of Illinois.

Est. Value: ???

RAFFLE ITEMS

Penn State University Creamery Cheese Gift Certificate

Donor: Tom Palchak, Penn State University Creamery

Gift certificate for cheese from the Penn State University Creamery.

Est. Value:

Cougar Gold Cheese from Washington State University Creamery

Donor: Larry Fox, Washington State University

Savor the nutty flavor of our most famous and popular cheese! Cougar Gold is a white, sharp cheddar with a taste that resembles Swiss or Gouda. Aged for at least one year.

Est. Value: $35.00

Bonnie Mohr Signed & Numbered print, Winner's Choice

Est. Value: $75.00

Bonnie Mohr Signed & Numbered print, Winner's Choice

Est. Value: $75.00

$1000 Best Buy Gift Card

Est. Value: $1000.00

$500 Best Buy Gift Card

Est. Value: $500.00

$250 Best Buy Gift Card

Est. Value: $250.00

Dell Axim™ X51 Pocket PC

Donor: DHI-Provo

520MHz Processor, 128MB ROM 64MB SDRAM, 3.5 inch QVGA 802.11b, BT (221-9720; Bluetooth), WM 5.0 OS (Operating System), Audio capabilities, SD (Secure Digital) and CF (Compact Flash) Cards for data storage, much more.

Est. Value: $320.00

Dell Axim™ X51 Pocket PC

Donor: DRMS Raleigh/Ames

520MHz Processor, 128MB ROM 64MB SDRAM, 3.5 inch QVGA 802.11b, BT (221-9720; Bluetooth), WM 5.0 OS (Operating System), Audio capabilities, SD (Secure Digital) and CF (Compact Flash) Cards for data storage, much more.

Est. Value: $320.00

Brown Swiss Cheese Basket

Donor: Brown Swiss Cattle Breeders Assoc.

Est. Value: $50.00