1. All booths must be set up and ready for the official opening of the Exhibit Hall. Opening time is specified in the exhibit prospectus. Due to liability considerations, exhibits cannot be removed or dismantled before the conclusion of the show, and/or while attendees are present. Following the show, all exhibits and related materials must be removed promptly and no later than the time specified in the prospectus. Any exhibit material or property remaining shall be packed, shipped, or stored at the discretion of the Official Service Contractor at the expense of the exhibitor.

2. Exhibiting firms that decide to cancel space or reduce the size of their exhibit space are required to notify the Exhibits Coordinator in writing no later than March 1, 2017, to receive a 50% refund. It is the responsibility of the exhibitor to confirm that the ADSA Annual Meeting office has received the cancellation. Reduction after space assignments have been made may result in relocation of the exhibit booth. There will be no refunds for cancellations received after March 1, 2017.

3. ADSA will attempt to assign the exhibitor to one of its requested spaces. Notwithstanding these requests, ADSA reserves the right to make its allocation of exhibit space or to change the space allocation at any time. The failure to relocate an exhibit to the requested space will not in any way affect the enforceability of this agreement. The floor plan submitted by ADSA is believed to be generally accurate. ADSA offers booth dimensions based on industry standards, but makes no guarantees or representations with respect to actual space measurements.

4. ADSA reserves the right to direct the show decorator to uncrate and set up any exhibit display that is on the floor in the booth but not uncrated one hour before opening time. This does not apply to unpacking boxes of the exhibitor's product, but rather to booth structures (e.g., shelving, backdrops, lights). The exhibitor will be invoiced for labor and other costs involved. Exhibitors may handle their own hand-carry materials in and out of the area. The exhibitor must handle materials, equipment for delivery (e.g., dollies, forklifts, hand trucks) will be handled by local union personnel.

5. Exits and aisles must be clear of boxes and materials during show hours. Electrical lines must be accessible at all times.

6. Nothing shall be attached to any of the pillars, walls, doors, floors, et cetera, in such a manner as to deface or destroy the property. The use of cellophane or masking tape or similar products on painted or papered surfaces is strictly prohibited. All posters, signs, and similar advertisements should be posted on billboards designed for that purpose. Nails, hooks, tacks, and screws must not be driven into pillars, walls, doors, or floors.

7. Exhibits must be designed and erected in such a manner as to avoid blocking the view of adjacent exhibits. Booths shall be constructed so that inline and peninsula booths do not exceed 83” (2.1 m) in height and island booths do not exceed 16’0” (4.8 m) in height, including hanging signs and graphics. Inline and peninsula booths and all their contents are limited to 83” in height for the back 50% of the booth area and 40” in height for the front 50% of the booth area. No part of a booth or any attachment, sign, or extension of a booth may exceed these limitations, except that hanging signage and graphics over a peninsula booth, not to exceed 16’0” in height, is permitted.

End cap booths do not qualify for hanging signs. Limitations will be strictly enforced. No booth shall be bridged or connected across the aisle in any way to an adjacent booth without the prior written consent of ADSA.

8. Hanging signs and graphics should be set back 10’ (3.05 m) from adjacent booths and be directly over contracted space only. Approval for the use of hanging signs and graphics, at any height, must be received from ADSA at least 60 days prior to installation. Drawings should be available for inspection. Please contact ADSA for information on banners.

9. Audiovisual and other noise-emitting equipment used in exhibits may not be operated in a manner that will disturb other exhibitors.

10. All demonstrations or other sales activities in the Exhibit Hall must be confined to the limits of an exhibitor’s own exhibit booth. Distribution of literature may be done only from within the booth assigned to the exhibitor presenting such materials. Firms or organizations not assigned space in the Exhibit Hall will not be permitted to solicit business within the Exhibit Hall.

11. The character of the exhibits is subject to approval of ADSA, which reserves the right to refuse applications of unmet required or expected standards, as well as the right to curtail or to close exhibits, or parts of exhibits, that reflect unfavorably on the character of the meeting. This applies to displays, literature, advertising novelties, souvenirs, conduct of persons, et cetera.

12. Each exhibitor is charged with knowledge of and compliance with all laws, ordinances, and regulations pertaining to health, fire prevention, and public safety. All booth decorations must be flame proofed and comply with local fire codes, and all hangings must clear the floor. Electrical wiring must conform to National Electrical Code Safety Rules.

13. The exhibitor assumes entire responsibility and hereby agrees to protect, indemnify, and hold harmless ADSA and FASS, and the convention center and its employees and agents from any and all claims, losses, and damages to persons or property; governmental charges or fines; and attorney’s fees arising out of or caused by exhibitor’s installation, removal, maintenance, occupancy, or use of the exhibiting premises or a part thereof, excluding any such liability caused by the sole negligence of the convention center. In addition, the exhibitor acknowledges that ADSA and the convention center do not maintain insurance covering the exhibitor’s property and that it is the sole responsibility of the exhibitor to obtain business interruption, theft and property damage insurance covering such losses by the exhibitor.

14. Exhibitor and sponsor activities not described in this prospectus are prohibited during conference hours (7 am to 5 pm; 7 am to noon on the final day of the conference). Sponsors and exhibitors are asked to avoid scheduling events that coincide with evening award programs, whenever possible.

15. Exhibitors and sponsors agree that failure to comply with the foregoing rules and regulations will cause harm to ADSA and may result in a fine or denial of participation in one or more future meetings. Applications from exhibitors and sponsors with a balance due will not be accepted until all amounts owing are paid in full.
The American Dairy Science Association (ADSA®) is an international organization of educators, scientists and industry representatives who are committed to advancing the dairy industry, and keenly aware of the vital role the dairy sciences play in fulfilling the economic, nutritive and health requirements of the world’s population. Together, ADSA members have discovered new methods and technologies that have revolutionized the dairy industry.

ADSA Vision: Science, education, and service for the dairy industry.

ADSA Mission: The American Dairy Science Association provides leadership in scientific and technical support to sustain and grow the global dairy industry through generation, dissemination, and exchange of information and services.

Benefits of ADSA Membership

Journal of Dairy Science®
There is no better way to remain up to date on important advances in the dairy industry than having electronic access to JDS. The journal publishes original research, technical notes, current news items, and articles of general interest to leaders in the global dairy industry. Every issue of JDS, starting with the first issue published in 1917 and continuing up to the present, is available as part of the ADSA membership package.

ADSA Annual Meeting
http://www.adsa.org

ADSA members from around the world attend the Annual Meeting at a discounted member registration rate. Symposia, oral, and poster presentations; exhibits; and the opportunity to interact and network with leading scientists make this the comprehensive dairy meeting not to be missed. Participate once and you will know why several members have not missed a single meeting in decades!

ADSA Discover Conference Series
http://www.adsa.org/discover/

Established in 1997, ADSA’s Discover Conferences offer an informal environment and format that encourages candid interactions among scientists to improve learning and understanding of timely topics in the science of food animal agriculture. ADSA members attend this highly regarded conference at discounted member rates.

S-PAC®
(Searchable Proceedings of Animal Conferences)
http://spac.adsa.org/

S-PAC is the most comprehensive database of animal production and management conference proceedings in the world. This unique collection of conference proceedings and presentations is a must-have resource for animal scientists, veterinarians, academicians, consultants, and members of industry around the world. New conference proceedings are added frequently. If you can’t attend the multitude of conferences that S-PAC covers, do the next best thing: subscribe to S-PAC today! Members receive free access to Joint Annual Meeting and ADSA abstracts housed in S-PAC, and deeply discounted subscription rates to the full proceedings and presentation database. Subscriptions at the deeply discounted ADSA member rate are available for individuals, corporate sustaining members, and institutions.

Recorded Symposia Library
ADSA individual members enjoy access to a large and growing password protected library of recorded symposia.

Newsletters
Members start each week “in the know” with ADSA’s industry e-newsletter Dairy-e-News. From timely topics and important announcements, to the best industry calendar of events, dairy industry professionals turn to Dairy-e-News. News of the association is published each April and October fall in ADSA News.

Member Directory
ADSA makes it easy for its members to stay in touch with professional colleagues by publishing an online directory of ADSA members. Beyond helping you stay in touch, this unique database is highly searchable for those times when you need to reach out to members with specific expertise.

ADSA Web Site
The ADSA web site has the latest association and industry information including national and branch meeting plans; board, committee, and staff listings; JDS author instructions; job postings; dairy publications listings; and more. These areas of the home page are accessible to all visitors.

Your Voice of Science
ADSA advocates on matters of importance for dairy scientists, as well as through ADSA’s participation and support of the FASS Science Policy program.
