Attention Paper Presenters
Again this year there are 2 options for uploading your presentations!
Students presenting papers in the SAD Undergraduate Paper Presentation Competition have the option of advance loading their papers or uploading onsite. If you wish to upload your paper in advance, you may do so electronically by 11:59PM CDT July 5, 2010. Simply log into the abstract submission application: http://www.fass-abstracts.org/meetinginfo.asp?meetingcode=167.

Students are encouraged to advance upload to minimize issues onsite. This is the same application used to submit the meeting abstracts. Select the “Login and Manage Abstracts” Link and be sure to use the same account login information that was created at the time of submission. If you do not recall this information, use the “forgot password” link on the login page. Once you are logged in, click the “add/manage documents” link for your abstract in the table to go to the upload page.

Students presenting papers in the SAD Undergraduate Paper Presentation Competition also have the option to upload their papers ONSITE by Sunday, July 11 at 3:00PM local time. All PowerPoint presentations must be loaded in advance of each session. No presentations will be loaded while the session is in progress, between presentations, or during breaks.

Each session room will be equipped with a laptop computer configured with Microsoft PowerPoint 2007; an LCD projector; and with standard audio equipment. The use of personal laptop computers for presentations in the session rooms is not permitted.

Code of Conduct:
Reminder all students participating in ADSA-SAD Meetings must complete a Code of Conduct form for the year. If your students completed one for the regional meetings, there is no need to complete another for the national meeting.

S-PAC for Students:
S-PAC is a valuable resource that provides access to fully searchable proceedings of top industry animal conferences. Many instructors are already requiring that students in their classes subscribe to it, just as they would buy a book. If you are not familiar with the service, you can give it a try - a 5 day sample subscription is only $5 for professional members. Go to www.adsa.org for more information.

A subscription to S-PAC is only $5 for undergrads, $10 for grad students.

Save on Lodging in Denver
We realize that lodging in Denver is expensive ($169 single - $199 quad per night), as it is in any major city. If you are interested in room sharing with other clubs, we encourage you to contact other advisors for possible room shares. If you need help making the connection, contact Molly Kelley at adsa-sad@assochq.org. Student Hotel is the Comfort Inn Denver Downtown. Go to http://adsa.psa.ampa.csas.asas.org/meetings/2010/housing.asp for complete housing information.

News from the Regions . . . .

Southern Regional ADSA-SAD
February 18-21, 2010
Alabama A&M University in Huntsville, AL
By Elizabeth Chaney
ADSA-SAD 2nd Vice President

The Southern branch of ADSA-SAD convened February 18-21 for its annual meeting in Huntsville, Ala., hosted by Alabama A & M University. The southern region was represented by Alabama A & M, Clemson, Louisiana State, North Carolina State, the University of Kentucky, Virginia Tech and Washington State.

Thursday evening began with a pizza party at the Alabama A&M campus, as well as time to catch up with old and new friends from SAD. Friday afternoon, we enjoyed exhibits, space history and rides at the Huntsville Space Center. That evening featured a banquet with excellent speakers and representation from Alabama A & M. Paper presentations filled Saturday morning, followed by lunch, an activities symposium and quiz bowl competition at the Alabama A&M research farm. Virginia Tech took home Quiz Bowl crown, while the University of Kentucky came in second. Sunday morning was our final banquet with award presentations.

The Southern region of ADSA-SAD appreciates everything Alabama A & M did to prepare for this weekend and for being such wonderful hosts. This regional meeting was a perfect way to get us pumped up for Nationals in Denver.
