Hello to all, near and far! I hope the spring semester is going well for everyone.

Now that we have all had successful regional meetings, it is time to get excited for the upcoming national meeting. Congratulations to all of the award winners from regional competitions.

Your ADSA SAD officer team has been working hard to plan this summer’s meeting in Phoenix, Arizona. A few of the events will contain a tour of Shamrock Dairy Farm on Saturday, and a poolside party at the student hotel on Monday evening. We also made sure to integrate plenty of free time to meet with fellow students and explore the exciting city. Mark your calendars now for July 14th through the 17th in Phoenix!

As we look towards the end of the school year, I would like to wish everyone good luck in all of your endeavors! And, I hope to see you all Phoenix to take part in the learning, fellowship, and fun that defines ADSA and especially, the Student Affiliate Division!

Year after year, we hear students say it would be more fun if all the clubs stayed at the same hotel. They are right! Having all the students in one place facilitates networking and interaction, a key component of the JAM. Plus it's convenient: our tours will depart from Springhill, and our Monday night mixer will be poolside. ADSA is helping to get everyone in one place by restricting access to the student hotel - to get a reservation at our discounted rate, you must be affiliated with a dairy club and enter the Student Access Code: JAMStudentPhx2012 Professional members and other non-students will not be given this code, and as such will not have access to rooms in our Springhill Suites block.

By the same token, Dairy Clubs will need to do their part by booking rooms in the student block, ensuring we get the maximum number of students in one hotel.

To book your club's rooms, go to https://secure.fass.org/reg_2012_Joint_Meeting_housing.asp Once you've logged in, enter the Student Access Code: JAMStudentPhx2012 to gain access to the Springhill Suites block.

Rooms at the Springhill are the deeply discounted at $119/night for up to 4 people. This all-suite hotel offers spacious rooms with such amenities as free wireless, free parking, microwaves, mini fridges and sitting areas in every room. Springhill also offers free full breakfast to all guests, further helping with your travel budget. Go to the Springhill Suites Downtown Phoenix web site for more information.

Getting to the hotel from the Airport

The JAM hotels and the convention center are approximately five miles from Phoenix Sky Harbor International Airport (PHX). COMPLIMENTARY TRANSPORTATION is offered between Springhill Suites and Sky Harbor Airport, Convention Center and local downtown businesses from 7:00am to 10:00pm (based on availability).

A taxi ride from the airport will take approximately 15 minutes. The one-way fare for a taxi from the airport to the Phoenix Convention Center area will be approximately $20.00. A shuttle service (Airport Shuttle) is also available; go online to book shuttle in advance (http://www.airportshuttle.com). The standard rate is $24.00 round-trip. A shuttle connects the airport to the METRO Light Rail system, which runs to the downtown area.

Midwest Regional ADSA-SAD
February 24-25, 2012
University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

The 30th annual Midwest ADSA-SAD conference was held in Champaign, Illinois February 24 and 25 at University of Illinois campus. The Illini Dairy club did a great job hosting activities, allowing us to socialize, become more educated about the industry, and a chance for some friendly competition.

The events started on Friday with rounds of quiz bowl, followed by speakers welcoming us to Illinois. The night ended with a dance and live band. Saturday was filled with great speakers relating to different areas of the dairy industry. This year also featured a careers fair. The meeting finished Saturday night with a dinner where the regional officers were announced. Awards were presented and a dance was held.

2012 Award Winners:
- Electronic Yearbook: University of Minnesota - Twin Cities
- Paper Yearbook: University of Minnesota - Twin Cities
- Scrapbook: Michigan State University
Greetings all! This year was the 2nd annual meeting of the Western Region ADSA-SAD of which I had the privilege of being the 1st Vice President. I am glad to report that the meeting held this year, March 3-4, 2012 in Visalia, California, was a great success! The officer/advisor team and I were very pleased with the amount of participation we had this year. Students checked in on the 3rd and received a t-shirt whose design was chosen by the Western Region Officers. After registration was through, there were three student paper presentations. Next a career symposium was held. Unlike the year before, this symposium was in a panel format. Five industry professionals were asked a set of questions and were asked to respond to the entire group of students and advisors. Students were allowed to ask follow-up questions and the whole symposium was very interactive. The students and advisors seemed to enjoy this style of career symposium as did the panelists. The dinner that night was sponsored by California Dairies, Inc., and two company representatives gave a brief discussion about the company before the dinner started. That night there was an informal student mixer put on by the officer team in the lobby of the hotel. We interacted with one another and had many interesting conversations getting to know, and learning a little more about our peers.

The next morning we had our business meeting and officer/advisor elections. After the business meeting the students were divided into several groups based on a qualifying test from dinner the night before. These comingled teams of students from different universities then competed in a Quiz Bowl Competition. A fun time was had by all who participated! A nice buffet brunch complemented the activities symposium that followed. The meeting ended with an awards ceremony, the unveiling of the new officer/advisor team, and remarks from the 2012-2013 President, Miss Erin DeSnayer.

On behalf of the 2011-2012 Western Region ADSA-SAD Officer Team, I would like to extend my congratulations to all of the contest winners and the 2012-2013 Western Regional SAD Officer Team!
